

HOMEMADE LEMONADE

You need

1 cup of sugar, 4–6 fresh lemons and 4–5 cups of water

Method

Place 1 cup of sugar in a heatproof mixing jug and add 1 cup of boiling water, stirring gently until the sugar dissolves.

Use a lemon squeezer to squeeze the juice of 4–6 fresh lemons, enough to make a cupful.

Mix the sugar-water and lemon juice together in a tall jug/pitcher and add 3–4 cups of water to taste.

Refrigerate for 30 minutes and serve with lots of ice and slices of lemon.

WIMPY BINGO

SETTING UP

WIMPY is a wimpified version of the game BINGO. You'll need to photocopy enough copies of the WIMPY game board (next page) to distribute to everyone at the event.

HOW TO PLAY

Before you start, distribute one WIMPY game board to each player and ask them to write one word or phrase from the Word Box in each of the empty board spaces. Players can place the words in any order and in any box they choose, as long as they do not repeat words or phrases.

To play, ask the players the questions listed below. Each answer (in brackets below) corresponds to a word/phrase from the Word Box. If the players have a correct answer on their game board, they should circle or mark the word.

The first person to mark off a full row, column or diagonal line has to shout 'WIMPY!' to win! Check to make sure the answers are correct and award a prize. If the answers are not correct, the game continues until there is a winner.

THE NAME TAG GAME

SETTING UP

Cut out the name tags below and tape one name to the back of each player. Players should not be told what it says on their name tag. You might need to photocopy this page if you have a larger group.

HOW TO PLAY

The object of the game is for players to try to figure out which book character they've been assigned by going around the room and talking to one another. Each player can ask Yes or No questions to figure out who they are. (For example, "Am I best friends with Greg?") When a player discovers who they are, they can step out of the game. The goal is not to be the last person remaining.

THE PERSONALITY GAME

SETTING UP

Cut out the slips of paper below, and hand three random slips to each person in the group. You may need to photocopy this sheet so that there are enough slips of paper for everyone.

HOW TO PLAY

Once the game begins, players have two minutes to swap their slips of paper with other players. Players should trade for slips of paper whose phrases most accurately reflect their personality. Each slip of paper has an image of a Wimpy Kid character on it. Once the time runs out, players should count how many slips they have with each character on. The character that appears the most on the player's slip is the character with whom they have the most in common!

I think the American Civil War is fascinating!

I sometimes store things in my belly button.

I have fallen asleep at school before.

I have slept past 3 p.m. on a Saturday.

I am afraid of clowns.

I think this game is totally lame.

I think society these days is too reliant on technology.

I still sleep with my stuffed animals.

I wish all the teenagers
in this town would get shipped off to Alcatraz.

I can read the thoughts of animals.

I think bunnies
are awesome.

I think Greg Heffley
is a great role model.

I think speaking Spanish is easy.

I think hugs are the best medicine.

I think my parents'
music taste is terrible.

I like to chew
my toenails.

I can remember being born.

I hide snacks where I can find them later.

I would trade in my best friend if I could get someone better.

I spend more money on music than video games.

I have the greatest best friend in the whole wide world.

I sometimes eat while sitting on the toilet.

I keep an enemies list.

I think that just being together is the most fun of all.
